

Course Attendance and Payment Terms and Conditions for Children's Groups

1. The payment should be made for the full course, no later than three work days before the start of the course. The place in the course is only booked after we receive the payment.
2. At AKS we do not have trial lessons.
3. Skipped classes are not refunded. They can only be postponed due to health issues after providing a document that confirms your reason of absence.
4. Course attendants are obliged to inform their teacher about their absence in advance, so that the teacher could plan the class activities accordingly.
5. If 2 or less students come to a planned class, there is a possibility to postpone the class upon common agreement between the students and the teacher.
6. On public holidays planned classes can be postponed upon common agreement between the students and the teacher.
7. On school holidays classes can be postponed upon common agreement. If classes still take place during holidays, children who cannot participate in them are not asked to pay for them.
8. If the teacher gets sick/cannot give the lesson, classes may be held by a substituting teacher or the class can be postponed.
